YOUTH MINISTRY

Code of Conduct

The following are a list of rules and expectations for student behaviour during their participation in the youth ministry programs at FBC Leamington to create a safe and friendly environment for those participating and leading the programs. Disregard for the rules can result in early dismissal from programming or suspension from programming.

1. Once you're in the building, you're expected to stay inside with the group for the length of the program or until your departure for home.
2. Remain with the group in the program areas (lower auditorium, kitchen, gymnasium). Do not go into restricted areas. (These include: back stairwell going up to sanctuary, elevator, side entrance foyer, upstairs, pantry area by deep freezer, boiler room). This includes no pairing off in the restricted areas.
3. No PDAs (public displays of affection). (No opposite sex piggy back rides, no full front hugs) Acceptable - brief side hugs.
4. No cell phones during teaching time.
5. No swearing.
6. Respect one another.
7. Keep conversations relevant to the discussion at hand and respectful.
8. Do not take any snack/drinks into gym.
9. Participation!!!! Please participate in all games/group activities/ discussions as able. If unable to participate in an activity, you are still expected to stay with the group for the duration of the activity. (See rules 1 and 2).
10. Call for your rides in advance so that you can be picked up at 8:30pm on Wednesdays and 10:00pm on Fridays.
